The sophisticated appeal of the Enesco Gallery collection offers a great deal of choice for enhancing and decorating the home, drawing on the ever popular themes of love and family, as well as celebrating the beguiling beauty of the female form.

Circle of Love celebrates and depicts the warmth and feeling of love and family through flowing lines and entwined circles.

Kim Lawrence

As a studio artist for Enesco, Kim Lawrence designs home accessories and figurines in many different styles and media. She is the artist behind Circle of Love, a contemporary, porcelain home décor line, centering on love and family.

Kim receives artistic inspiration by working in a variety of materials, from creating resin figurines for Enesco's gift and décor lines to designing contemporary home accessories in porcelain. She also loves the brainstorming process: 'I find satisfaction in discovering that next unique idea,' says Kim. 'It's wonderful when I come up with an idea, know it's a good one, and then see the end result when my artwork is translated into a three-dimensional figure.'

When Kim is not designing for Enesco, she enjoys creating contemporary abstract paintings and ink drawings with an inspiring message and meaning. 'I love designing realistically, as seen in some of my figurine lines, but to communicate more complex emotion and thought-provoking messages, I prefer the freedom of abstraction. I just like to relax and let the colour and line flow out onto the canvas.'
