What is love

by Jane Burn

This new gift collection from Enesco has been designed by Jane Burn, a talented jeweller, silversmith and illustrator. The collection expresses, through words and sensitive drawings, the many qualities of that age-old question — what is love?

Each piece is beautifully decorated with hearts in Jane's distinctive watercolour style and finished with perceptive phrases.

Prompted by the wish to explain the concept to children, Jane adds, 'There's not just one answer, but I hope my designs, phrases and drawings help people come to a conclusion that's both right for them and for the occasion.'

Show the one you love how you feel, tell the story of your heart.
